why

Over the summer, use these questions after reading a book or listening to a story to review comprehension skills.

Five Finger Retell –Ask your child to hold up one finger at a time to share: character(S), setting, problem, events, ending

What happened at the beginning of the story?

Who are the characters?

What was the setting of the story?

What was the problem in the story?

What happened during the middle part of the story?

How did the story end?

Using the below sentence frame, ask your child to fill in the blanks after the story:

_____ (somebody) wanted _____ but _____ so _____
then _____

Feel free to read NON-FICTION BOOKS over the summer. After the reading, flag any important fact(s) or sentence, write a few key words, using the key words write a sentence containing this story.
